Time & Place Founder and President Discusses Affordable Luxury Vacations Across the Globe

July 7, 2014 - BROOMFIELD, COLORADO - As the holiday weekend shifted into full gear, Time & Place Founder and President Mitch Willey took a moment to chat with MSNBC's Alex Witt about affordable vacations in luxury homes across the globe.

A premier global vacation home rental company with local concierge services, Time & Place recently marked its one-year anniversary since an exciting relaunch and celebrated a year of milestones in providing customized luxury travel experiences around the world.

"This is what we do," said Time & Place Founder and President Mitch Willey. "We provide great value in a luxury setting and allow you to create memories and experiences of a lifetime in some of the most sought-after locations."

Named among the Best Villa Rental Agencies by Travel + Leisure in 2014, Time & Place was founded in 2001 and has since grown and expanded to offer 300 luxury vacation homes in over 60 coveted destinations around the world. By delivering fine, vetted luxury accommodations along with well-connected, local concierges who create authentic travel experiences, Time & Place continues to distinguish itself among competitors.

"What sets us apart," founder Willey notes, "is not just our carefully selected homes around the world, it's our commitment to pairing our guests with local concierges who play a key role in crafting unique experiences."
